Dear Parishioners,

A very Happy Birthday to All

We celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the Birthday of the Church as we celebrate Pentecost day.

1. The Outpouring of the Spirit

In the Old Testament, God promised that, in the last days, in the days of the Messiah, he would pour out his Spirit on all of his people. (Joel 2:28) The apostle Peter quotes this promise to explain what is happening when the apostles speak in tongues at Pentecost. This outpouring of the Spirit on Pentecost marks the beginning of the period promised so long ago.

But why would God want to mark this great new beginning, the fulfillment of the Messianic promise, the start of the Church, by having the apostles speak in all the myriad languages of the polyglot world of their time? There are so many other things the Spirit might have done! Later, filled with the Spirit, the apostles heal the lame, cure the sick, cast out demons. Why didn't God mark the beginning of the outpouring of his Spirit by something more glorious than the ability to communicate with others without a translator?

God marks the beginning of the reign of his Spirit in the Church by overturning the babel of human language.

Here we should remember the story of the Tower of Babel, told early in Genesis (Genesis 11:1-9), not so long after the Fall. The people building the Tower of Babel all spoke one language; but they used the power that the commonality of language gave them for evil, to build a tower that reached to heaven. God defeated them by the simple expedient of multiplying their languages and leaving them unable to understand each other. Now, in the new age, Christ offers all people salvation from their sin, through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. In this age of the Spirit-filled Church, all human beings are invited into communion with the Lord and with each other. Human beings can be trusted with unity when they are incorporated into the one body of the Lord.

And maybe that is why God marks the beginning of the reign of his Spirit in the Church by overturning the babel of human language. Filled with the Holy Spirit, human beings can be given again what they lost at the Tower of Babel, not for storming heaven, but for proclaiming the kingdom of heaven on earth.

2. First Holy Communion

The candidates for First Eucharist gather in the Church Monday night (5 June) for their practise as they prepare to receive Our Lord on their First Holy Communion Day 18 June at 10.30am Mass. This is a special Mass due to the number of Candidates. On that day, we welcome 27 children to the table of the Lord for the first time and pray that as the Lord delights in coming to them, they will delight in coming to Him often to receive Him in Holy Communion. Please keep our candidates and their families in your prayers.

3. Paschal Precept

A reminder of the Paschal Precept that obliges all Catholics to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once a year, as well as receiving Holy Communion at least once a year (as a minimum).

The Paschal Precept is from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday (10 June). This is to acknowledge that Jesus died on the cross for my sins and sinfulness.

4. School News

The building works at the school are progressing well, thanks to the good weather we have had during May. Stage I of the Kindergarten building is progressing with the classroom fit out and the external earthworks are well underway.

What is happening at the school is the work on the carpark. Due to the rain in March, the builders couldn't get to hard ground due to water in the ground so, they had to remove the wet dirt and bring in dry dirt to begin the carpark. Also, we have to build the footpath and drainage, as well as, half the road. We hope to see the children return for Term 3.

5. One Month mass: Giuseppina Musso

A one month mass will be celebrated for the repose of the soul of Giuseppina Musso on this Thursday 8 June at 7pm, in the Church. All welcome to join the Musso family for this Mass.

6. Welcome Ceremony

We welcome families preparing to celebrate the Baptism of their child during the Sunday 9am Mass. We welcome them, their godparents and family who are present.

7. Relics of St Anthony's

A committee to further the devotion to St Anthony of Padua are bringing his relics out from Padua during the month of June.

It is to mark the centenary of the apparitions of the seers of Fatima held recently.

A relic of St Anthony (a piece of his floating rib) which was venerated by Sister Lucy (a Fatima seer) and Pope Francis will be at Toongabbie this month.

I will be attending the evening Mass. We can make our own way to the Church. Any more information see me or ring 9631 3316 at the church.

8. St Anthony of Padua Feast Day

POPE FRANCIS COLUMN

This morning's General Audience was held at 9:20 in St. Peter's Square, where the Holy Father Francis met with groups of pilgrims and faithful from Italy and from all over the world.

In his address in Italian, the Pope reflected on the theme: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope" (Cf. Romans 15:13-14).

Dear Brothers and Sisters, good morning!

In the imminence of the Solemnity of Pentecost, we cannot but speak of the relation there is between Christian hope and the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is the wind that drives us on, that keeps us on the way, makes us feel ourselves pilgrims and strangers, and does not permit us to ensconce ourselves and to become a "sedentary" people.

The Letter to the Hebrews compares hope to an anchor (Cf. 6:18-19); and to this image we can add that of the sail. If the anchor is what gives the boat security and keeps it "anchored" between the waves of the sea, the sail, instead, is what makes it go and advance on the waters. Hope is truly like a sail; it receives the wind of the Spirit and transforms it into the driving force that pushes the boat, depending on the circumstances, to the open sea or to the shore.

The Apostle Paul ends his Letter to the Romans with this wish: hear well, listen well to this beautiful wish: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope (15:13). Let us reflect a bit on the content of this very beautiful word.

The expression "God of hope" does not only mean that God is the object of our hope, namely Him that we hope to reach one day in eternal life. It also means that God is He that already now makes us hope, rather, He makes us "rejoice in hope" (Romans 12:12): rejoicing now in hope, and not only hoping to rejoice. It is the joy of hoping, now today, and not hoping to have joy. "While there is life, there is hope," states a popular saying. And the contrary is also true: while there is hope, there is life. Men have need of hope to live and they have need of the Holy Spirit to hope.

We heard Saint Paul, who attributes to the Holy Spirit the capacity to make us even "abound in hope." To abound in hope means never to be discouraged; it means to hope "against all hope" (Romans 4:18), namely, to hope also when every human motive for hope fails, as it was for Abraham, when God asked him to sacrifice to Him his only son, Isaac, and as it was, even more so, for the Virgin Mary under Jesus' cross.

The Holy Spirit makes this invincible hope possible, giving us the interior testimony that we are children of God and His heirs (Cf. Romans 8:16). How could He who gave us His only Son not give us everything else together with Him? (Cf. Romans 8:32). "Hope — brothers and sisters — does not disappoint: hope does not disappoint, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). Therefore, it does not disappoint, because the Holy Spirit is within us who pushes us to go on, always! And because of this, hope does not disappoint.

Brothers and sisters, may the forthcoming feast of Pentecost, which is the birthday of the Church, find us in accord in prayer with Mary, Jesus' Mother and ours. And may the gift of the Holy Spirit make us abound in hope. I will say more to you: may it make us fritter away hope with all those who are most in need, most rejected and all those that have need. Thank you.

That men who had a good relationship with their father have a higher life satisfaction level later in life. Premature deaths, substance abuse and law-breaking for fathers tends to decline when they are involved more in their children's life.
