Dear Parishioners,
We celebrate the Thirty-Third Sunday of the Year

1. Winning and Losing

In the First Reading and also in the Gospel Reading, there is a prophecy about a time to come that will be very bad. The First Reading says that in that bad time God's people will escape the trouble. But Jesus says that in that bad time Christians will be hated in bad times? Do Christians lose and lose and lose, as the Gospel of Matthew says? Or do they win by escaping the trouble, as the First Reading says?

Escaping is managing not to be turned into a horror and a disgrace by your own cooperation with the evil all around you that masquerades as good. But what is losing? Is it a matter of being hated, afflicted, and killed? Christ was hated, afflicted, and killed, too. And yet Christ did not lose on the cross, did he? He won.

And here we should notice that, in both the First Reading and the Gospel Reading, there are TWO endings of the story of a human life, not just one. There is the end of the story in this world, when Christ's true disciples will be hated and afflicted. And then there is the real and final end of the story, at the last judgment, where each person will see himself as he really is. At that last chapter of each human story, the First Reading says, some people will be seen as the horror and disgrace that they really are. Others will shine like the splendour of the stars.

The winners in the battle of life, those who shine like stars, are those who have turned many to justice, the First Reading says. Acting with courage and integrity for justice, goodness, and truth can get a person hated, afflicted, and even killed, can't it?

And now we can see what it is to escape bad times. Escaping is not a matter of living at ease in prosperity, honoured by the world around you. Escaping is managing not to be turned into a horror and a disgrace by your own cooperation with the evil all around you that masquerades as good. This is an escape that God will give anyone who is willing to take up his cross daily.

And so the losing of the cross, the willingness to be hated and afflicted for the sake of justice—that is the way to the final winning where God's people shine with the splendour of the stars.

POPE FRANCIS COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters, good morning!

In today's catechesis, we will address the Eighth Word of the Decalogue: "Do not bear false witness against your neighbor."

This Commandment — says the Catechism — "forbids misrepresenting the truth in our relations with others" (n. 2464). To live of inauthentic communications is grave because it impedes relationships and, therefore, impedes love. Where there is a lie there is no love, love can't be exercised. And when we speak of communication between persons we mean not only words but also gestures, attitudes, even silences, and absences. A person speaks with all that he is and does. We are all in communication always. We all live communicating and we are continually poised between the truth and lies.

But what does it mean to tell the truth? Does it mean to be sincere or exact? In reality, this isn't enough, because one can be sincerely in error, or one can be precise in the detail but not gather the meaning of the whole. Sometimes we justify ourselves saying: "But I said what I felt!" Yes, but you have absolutized your point of view. Or "I only said the truth!" It may be so, but you have revealed personal or reserved facts. How much gossip destroys communion because it's inopportune or lacking in delicacy! Rather, gossip kills, and the Apostle James says this in his Letter. Gossipers are people who kill: they kill others because the tongue kills as a knife. Beware! A gossip is a terrorist because with his tongue he hurls the bomb and leaves calmly, but the thing that that hurled bomb says destroys others' reputation. Don't forget: to gossip is to kill.

But then, what is the truth? This is the question asked by Pilate, precisely while Jesus was carrying out the Eighth Commandment before him (Cf. John 18:38). In fact, the words "Do not bear false witness against your neighbor" belong to forensic language. The Gospels culminate in the account of Jesus' Passion, Death, and Resurrection; and this is the account of a trial, of the execution of the sentence and of an unheard of consequence.

Interrogated by Pilate, Jesus says: "For this, I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth" (John 18:37). And Jesus gives this "witness" with his Passion and Death. The evangelist Mark recounts that "the centurion, who stood facing Him, saw that He thus breathed his last, he said: 'Truly this man was the Son of God!'" (15:39). Yes, because He was coherent, He was coherent: with his way of dying, Jesus manifests the Father, His merciful and faithful love.

The truth finds its full realization in the person of Jesus himself (Cf. John 14:6), in His way of living and dying, the fruit of His relationship with the Father. This existence as children of God, He, risen, gives it also to us by sending the Holy Spirit who is Spirit of truth, who attests to our heart that God is our Father (Cf. Romans 8:16).

In every act of his, man affirms or denies this truth — from little daily situations to more demanding choices. But it's always the same logic: that which parents and grandparents teach us when they tell us not to tell lies.

Let us ask ourselves: what truths attest the works of us Christians, our words or our choices? Each one can ask himself: am I a witness of truth, or am I more or less a liar disguised as true? Each one must ask him/herself. We, Christians, aren't exceptional men and women. However, we are children of the heavenly Father, who is good and doesn't delude us and puts in our hearts love for brothers. This truth isn't said so much with speeches; it's a way of existing, a way of living, and it's seen in every single act (Cf. James 2:18). This man is a true man, that woman is a true woman: one can see it. But why, if he doesn't open his mouth? But he/she behaves as true. He/she says the truth, acts with truth — a good way of living for us.

The truth is God's wonderful revelation, of His face of Father, and His boundless love. This truth corresponds to human reason but surpasses it infinitely, because it's a gift come down on earth and incarnated in Christ crucified and risen; it is rendered visible by one to whom it belongs and shows his same attitudes.

Not to bear false witness means to live as a child of God, who never, never denies himself, never tells lies; live as children of God, letting emerge in every act the great truth: that God is Father and we can trust in Him. I trust God: this is the great truth. From our trust in God, who is Father and loves me, loves us, my truth is born and my being true and not a liar.

BAPTISMS AT ST ANTHONY'S

We welcomed into our Faith-Community last weekend

Sophia Maria Beneforte
(Child of Joseph & Frances)

Legion of Mary

From time to time the Legion of Mary makes an appeal to try to encourage more members to join us in helping Mary to reach out and bring more of her children around her Son.

The Legion of Mary started in Ireland by Frank Duff in 1921 and came to Sydney 75 years ago. Frank Duff was a member of the St Vincent de Paul but then he realised that there was more spiritual poverty than material poverty and so he started the Legion and went around to encourage people to practise their faith and God must have been pleased with what Frank did because if it wasn't for God's blessing, the Legion would not have survived all this time.

Most of our work is visiting people within the parish, mainly sick or elderly. One day Jesus will be asking us if we visited him when he was sick or in hospital on that day we would wish that we have visited him a 1000 times, we still got the time, this is another opportunity to keep the boss happy!

There are many more things we can do, depending on ones talents, many times we stay back because nobody encourages us, we need to be encouraged and that's why we need to join a group like the Legion of Mary to support one another and have some fun as we go.

Normally we meet every Thursday after the mass, and the meeting would be finished within the hour. We spend some time in prayer, we read, we discuss a few things and we finish with a prayer, it is always a happy time, once you start coming you will be looking forward for another meeting. If the day does not suit you we can negotiate that too. But, don't say you have no time, we all have the same time just a matter of how we spend our time and our time is a gift from God. One day we have to give an account on how we spent our time.

SAFEGUARDING OFFICE NEWS

The SafeGuarding and Ministerial Integrity Office was established in the Archdiocese in November 2015. The focus is the prevention of abuse and harm to children, young people and vulnerable adults. The office has developed and delivered training programmes to this end. They embody the inherent values of the Catholic Church.
