Dear Parishioners, We celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter

1. Trust After Heartbreak

In the Gospel Reading, the risen Jesus appears to ten of his apostles. Thomas is missing. The ten are convinced; but when Thomas rejoins them after Jesus has vanished, Thomas is highly skeptical.

A week later, Jesus appears to all eleven of them and invites Thomas to make good on his skeptical challenge. Jesus tells him, Put your finger in my wounds and believe! And then, without so much as touching Jesus, Thomas believes.

Actually, then, all Thomas did was see Jesus and his wounds, and then he believed. But, of course, that is just what the other ten apostles did in the first appearance of Christ, when Thomas was absent.

So why didn't Christ make his first appearance to the apostles at a time when Thomas was there too? Why did Christ first appear when Thomas was absent? Why single Thomas out in this way?

When heartbreak is so powerful, it can need space to breathe.

Thomas had trusted Jesus and believed he was the Messiah. But then the Romans killed Jesus; and when they did, they also killed the hope in Jesus that Thomas had. How much Thomas trusted before the crucifixion can be understood by the way Thomas hardened his heart against trust in the aftermath. "The bigger they are, the harder they fall," we say. And the bigness of Thomas' heart and the greatness of his trust in Jesus can be seen by how hard Thomas fell when he thought his trust was betrayed.

Thomas thought he had made a fool of himself by believing in Jesus, and he was not going to let his heart be broken again. And so when he heard the other apostles express their belief, he scoffed. In scoffing, Thomas protected himself against further heartbreak by turning his back on Jesus and all that Jesus meant to him.

And maybe that is why Jesus left Thomas out of his first appearance to the apostles. When heartbreak is so powerful, it can need space to breathe, to let its pain come to fruition. Maybe if Thomas had not been able to move all the way from heartbreak to skepticism, he would not have been able to move back to Jesus so powerfully either.

Without any more evidence than any of the other apostles had, Thomas says to Jesus, "My Lord and my God!"

2. Easter Ceremonies at St Anthony's

Attending our Easter Ceremonies, the comment was made of new faces, young faces and families attending. So, the face and people of the community is changing as we observe from the many housing estates mushrooming in the area.

The numbers at our ceremonies were well attended with standing room at Good Friday and our Easter Sunday Masses.

Again, I would like to thank you all for your prayers, participation in the Easter Liturgies and support to me while Fr Bob is on Long Service Leave.

Thank you all for your active support during the season of Lent and the celebration of Easter. I wish to thank our parish secretary, Cheryl, members of the Liturgy Committee, Church/Altar decorators, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Acolytes, Altar servers, Members of the parish choir, Children's Sunday Liturgy coordinators, Wardens/offering collectors, Church cleaners and Lawn Mowers, etc. Our parish community have been blessed by your pastoral support and services. May God reward you and every one of us abundantly. God bless.

3. Charitable Works Fund (CWF)

Next Sunday, the CWF's last collection for this financial year will be taken up at all weekend Masses.

The Archdiocese supports the Church agencies that are assisted by YOUR support to CWF. They are:

- *Catholic Care-supporting families, couples & singles
- *Confraternity of Christine Doctrine (CCD)-supporting our Catechists in sharing faith with the Catholic Children at Austral Public School
- *Ephpheta Centre-assisting those impaired
- *Aboriginal Catholic Community
- *The Seminaries-there are two in the Archdiocese with over 50 young men in training
- *Chaplains-both hospital and prison chaplains

On behalf of the Archdiocese, Archbishop Anthony Fisher, I thank you for your ongoing support to the CWF and its works to bring Christ's love and compassion to many in need.

4. Preparing for First Holy Communion

Next Sunday, at our Masses, we begin our preparation with our candidates for their First Holy Communion. Candidate and parents are to present themselves at the Mass they attend in the enrolment ceremony that will take place during Mass.

Please bring along your application sheet that you have picked up from the Church earlier this year.

Please Note: Do not hand any monies in with the Enrolment sheet.

Please hand in the monies during the instruction period in the hall to Sister Rosa or Jayann.

5. Parish Pastoral Council (PPC)

A reminder to members of the Parish Council of our meeting in the presbytery Monday night (May 6 at 7pm. Any suggestions/comments etc should be emailed to the presbytery email address in time for the meeting.

6. Project Compassion

Thank you to all who donated their Lenten penances by contributing to the needs and support of Project Compassion, as we know a very worthy cause of the Church through many years.

The amount given to date is: $5410.00

Anyone with boxes at home can return them to the back table, next weekend.

7. Church Toilets

Once again we have had a blockage in the toilets, we had to have an emergency plumber come out and AGAIN he found nappies caused the blockage.

PLEASE DO NOT dispose of nappies in the toilets. The cost to the Parish is enormous. Surely you don't put them down your toilets at home so PLEASE don't do it here.

Otherwise, the toilets will have to be locked during masses as this is the third time it has happened.

8. Lawn Mowing

The Parish grounds over the past 5 years have been looked after by John Bonanno. John has had a medical procedure and is unable to do the mowing of the parish grounds for several months. The mowing consists of the Church/Presbytery area, the grass strip along Eleventh Avenue to the parish hall, the grass strip running down Edmondson Avenue and the presbytery (front and back) lawns at 320 Edmondson.

Is there a couple of "dads" with ride-on mowers who would volunteer to keep the parish plant looking good as John has done over the past 5 years. At the moment we only have 2 volunteers.

May God Bless you.

Fr Kene

POPE FRANCIS COLUMN

'The Resurrection of Christ is the most shocking event in human history'

Pope Francis prayed the Regina Coeli on Easter Monday with the crowds gathered in St. Peter's Square. He offered a reflection, recalling the Easter joy that continues this week.

Here is a Vatican News translation of the full text of the Pope's reflection.

Today and throughout this week, the Easter joy of the Resurrection of Jesus, the wonderful event we commemorated yesterday, will continue.

During the Easter Vigil, the words spoken by the Angels at the empty tomb of Christ resounded. To the women who had gone to the tomb at dawn on the first day after the Sabbath, they said: "Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, He is risen". The Resurrection of Christ is the most shocking event in human history, attesting to the victory of God's Love over sin and death and giving our hope of life a rock-solid foundation. What was humanly unthinkable happened: "Jesus of Nazareth...God raised Him up, freeing Him from the pains of death".

On this Easter Monday (in Italian "Monday of the Angel"), the liturgy, with the Gospel of Matthew, takes us back to the empty tomb of Jesus. The women, full of awe and joy, are leaving in a hurry to go and bring the news to the disciples; and at that moment Jesus presents Himself before them. They "came up to Him and, falling down before Him, clasped His feet". Jesus drives fear out of their hearts and encourages them, even more, to announce to their brothers and sisters what has happened. All the Gospels emphasize the role of women, Mary of Magdala and the others, as the first witnesses of the resurrection. The men were frightened, they were closed in the Upper Room. Peter and John, advised by Mary Magdalene, only went out briefly and saw that the tomb was open and empty. But it was the women who were the first to meet the Risen One and to bring the message that He was alive.

Today, dear brothers and sisters, the words of Jesus addressed to the women resound for us too: "Do not be afraid; go and proclaim...". After the liturgies of the Easter Triduum, which allowed us to relive the mystery of our Lord's death and resurrection, now with the eyes of faith, we contemplate Him risen and alive. We too are called to meet Him personally and to become His heralds and witnesses.

With the ancient Easter Sequence, we repeat during these days: "Christ, my hope, is risen!". In Him we too have risen, passing from death to life, from the slavery of sin to the freedom of love. Let us, therefore, allow ourselves to be touched by the consoling message of Easter and be enveloped by its glorious light, which dispels the darkness of fear and sadness. The risen Jesus walks beside us. He manifests Himself to those who call on Him and who love Him. First of all, in prayer, but also in simple joys lived with faith and gratitude. We can also feel His presence when we share moments of cordiality, welcome, and friendship, or when we contemplate nature. May this feast day, on which it is traditional to enjoy some leisure and free time, help us to experience the presence of Jesus.

Let us ask the Virgin Mary to help us draw with full hands the gifts of peace and serenity of the Risen One, and to share them with our brothers and sisters, especially with those who most need comfort and hope.
