1. Death

When someone we know is diagnosed with serious sickness, we are shocked; and so is the sick person, as we all take in the possibility that he might die.

There is something perplexing about this reaction, isn't there? None of us is getting out of this life alive. And it is foolishness to think that we do not know the time of our death. It is sometime between now and the time when you would be 110 years old. (Who lives past 110?)

So death is inevitable, and we know at least roughly when it will come. The closer you get to 110, the closer it is—though, of course, we also know that you could get hit by a bus today.

Rats!, you might think, this is a truly depressing thought. Why call it to our attention? It is better to be shocked and surprised when it comes.

But listen to the Second Reading. What does it say? When death comes, this is what it brings:

In that new earth, you can be yourself, open, vulnerable, and still totally safe and at ease.

Our Lord himself comes to encourage you to weep over all the hardship of your past life, and then he himself wipes those tears away from your eyes. And there is not only a new heaven, but also a new earth. What do you expect from earth? Well, earth isn't disembodied. Earth is earth—dirt, plants, animals, the whole thing that God created when he created earth, as Genesis explains it to us.

Only this time there will be no pain and suffering. So there may be great sea beasts, as Genesis says (Gen.1:21), but they won't hurt anything; and neither will any of the other animals. If you want to play with lions, what's to stop you?

In fact, even humans won't hurt anything, in that great and wonderful time. Now that is a thought hard to take in, isn't it? But, in that new earth, you can be yourself, open, vulnerable, and still totally safe and at ease, because the people around you won't hurt anything—not you either.

And all of this is wrapped up in the tender love of the Lord. He himself will welcome you to this new world and to himself by telling you, "Come away, beloved. The winter is past; the flowers appear on the earth!" (Song of Songs 2:10-12)

That joy begins on the other side of death. What is there to fear about this?

6. The Month of May

May devotion is a traditional practice held in the month of May to honor Our Blessed Mother Mary as the 'Queen of May' also known as the Month of Blessed Virgin Mary. Please join us in this year's May devotion in the church with a Holy Rosary prayer. Times are as follows:

Monday: 10.30am

Tuesday – Thursday: 8.40am

Friday: after 9am Mass with exposition of the blessed Sacrament and benediction.

3. First Holy Communion

We ask that you remember our parish children as they begin lessons and preparations for their first Holy communion this week. Thanks to their parents and the Nuns of The New Apostolate Consecrated in the Heart of the Holy Family (our parish Nuns) for their support.

4. Lawn Mowing

The Parish grounds over the past 5 years have been looked after by John Bonanno. John has had a medical procedure and is unable to do the mowing of the parish grounds for several months.

The mowing consists of the Church/Presbytery area, the grass strip along Eleventh Avenue to the parish hall, the grass strip running down Edmondson Avenue and the presbytery (front and back) lawns at 320 Edmondson.

Is there a couple of "dads" with ride-on mowers who would volunteer to keep the parish plant looking good as John has done over the past 5 years. At the moment we only have 2 volunteers.

8. Pentecost

Sunday June 9 is Pentecost Sunday. Prayers of the faithful on that day will be in different languages so, if you are fluent in any language other than English and would like to participate in the Pentecost prayers of the faithful, please indicate your interest through the parish secretary on 9606 0206 or Fr Kene.

6. Our Parish Feast celebration

The feast of St. Anthony of Padua, our parish patronal feast is on June 13 but will be celebrated as a parish community the following Sunday June 16. We ask your prayers and suggestions as we begin planning and preparations for the celebration. Send your suggestions through the parish secretary on 96060206 or Frs Bob and Kene.

7. Legion of Mary

After 9am Mass every Thursday at the church chapel. Please join us.

POPE FRANCIS COLUMN

Greeting Convention of the International Catholic-Jewish Liaison Committee, Francis Says 'One Never Errs in Seeking Dialogue'

Pope Francis has encouraged Catholics and Jews to continue working together, especially in efforts to combat Anti-Semitism and persecution of Christians around the world.

The Holy Father did so in his greeting delivered to the participants in the 24th Convention of the "International Catholic Jewish Liaison Committee" (ILC).

"Our strength is the strength of the encounter, leading to certain quarters today, which leads to conflict only," he stressed in the message, underscoring: "One never errs in seeking dialogue."

The Roman Pontiff offered encouragement for a "better understanding" of one another and "to work together in a climate friendly environment."

Applauding their efforts to promote Jewish-Catholic dialogue, the Holy Father prayed their gathering be "an encounter in peace and for peace."

"May the blessing of the Most High with you, grant the tenacity of gentleness and the courage of patience. Shalom!" he said.

Here is the Vatican-provided English text of the Pope's message:

Dear Friends,

I offer you warm welcome and I thank you for everything you do. Your gathering is something like a general assembly of all those professionally engaged in Jewish-Catholic dialogue. I am grateful to the International Jewish Committee for Interreligious Consultations (IJCIC), to the Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews, to make a possible meeting.

From the promulgation of Nostra Aetate until now, Jewish-Catholic dialogue has borne good fruit. We share a rich spiritual patrimony that can and must be more esteemed and appreciated as we grow in mutual understanding, fraternity and shared commitment on behalf of others. In this regard, your Meeting aims to help develop points of convergence and to promote a greater degree of cooperation. It is fitting, too, that you are dealing with the problem of anti-Semitism, and about the persecution of Christians in various parts of the world. To say nothing of the state of Jewish-Catholic dialogue in Italy and in Israel, and its broader prospects.

I offer you encouragement, for a better understanding of one another and to work together in a climate friendly environment. Our strength is the strength of the encounter, leading to certain quarters today, which leads to conflict only. One never errs in seeking dialogue. Scripture points out that "deceit is in the mind of those who plan evil, but those who counsel peace have joy" ( Prov 12:20). I pray that your gathering may be an encounter in peace and for peace. May the blessing of the Most High with you, grant the tenacity of gentleness and the courage of patience. Shalom!

Legion of Mary

On the day before Jesus went up to Heaven, the last thing He told His disciples was to go and tell everybody what He has been telling them: to spread the gospel message, to speak of the love that God has for each one of us, to make known His infinite mercy and the need to repent.

The last news that came from Rome is that the church is putting the evangelisation work as the number one priority of the church's mission, before any other work, and Pope Francis always emphasised that the church is missionary by nature.

100 years ago Frank Duff also realised the importance of this work and that's why he started the Legion of Mary, to evangelise the Irish of all people, but now the Legion of Mary went all over the world and even it came to Austral at long last. Austral is no different to any other part of the World, most of our catholic friends only come to Mass Christmas and Easter or some other special occasion, yet they should be here every week same like us, and we are the ones to whom Jesus said to go and preach the Gospel to everyone. In the Legion of Mary we are encouraged to practise what we preach, but if we are not in the Legion we still have a part to play. Jesus told all His disciples not just a certain group, to spread His message. Let me make a suggestion, next time an opportunity comes up try to encourage someone to come to Church, or to say the Rosary, or to go to confession, say something beautiful about your faith, and if nobody turns up to hear your message say a prayer for the missionaries, for our priests and nuns, and for the legion of Mary too!

If you like to meet people, if you like to pray, if you are a cheerful person, if you like to make a difference to your life and to the lives of other people, do come along and see how you like us, it might be a bit of a sacrifice, but look at the sacrifice God made for you, and don't forget to bring the Rosary beads with you. God Bless.
