Tasting in Order to See

The readings this week highlight the importance of wisdom. But what is wisdom? And how do you get it? Taste and see that the Lord is good, the Psalm says.

In the world of Nazi Germany, everyone in the Nazi party got a party badge. Hitler's own party badge was made of gold. To the Nazis, Hitler's badge symbolized all the things in the world most worth having. At the end of his life, Hitler gave his gold badge as a gift to Magda Goebbels; and she said that it was the proudest moment of her life when he did. But he gave her that gold badge in the bunker under Berlin as Germany was losing the war. In that bunker in the last days of the war, Magda killed all six of her children and herself in an appallingly misguided act of loyalty to Hitler. When the invading soldiers of the Allied armies conquered Berlin and found her body, one of them took that little bit of a gold badge from her dress and pocketed it as a souvenir.

Magda shows us what folly is, doesn't she? She couldn't tell the real goods, the real gold, from the fake goods, the things that glitter but are worthless. The gold badge that symbolized what Magda Goebbels lived and died for is a fitting symbol of the terrible foolishness of her life.

Wisdom is the very opposite. It is the ability to discern between the real goods and the shiny fakes. But among the very best of the really good things is the goodness of God. And so wisdom is the ability to see the goodness of God wherever it is to be found in the world.

The Psalm tells us how we get the capacity for seeing the goodness of God, so important for us if we are to live our lives wisely and not foolishly, like Magda Goebbels. We get this capacity by tasting! Taste and see that the Lord is good, the Psalm says.

Taste what? The Gospel gives us the answer: Christ is the bread from heaven, and every person who tastes this bread will live. He will have the real goods, not the worthless fake goods; and he will see the difference between the two, because he will see God's goodness in Christ. Here is the end of the story then: Taste the bread from heaven and see the goodness of the Lord. Wisdom lies in this!

2. Pray for Afghanistan and Afghan people

You all would be following the unfolding situation in Afghanistan. There is a strong feeling of despair about the crumbling of democratic government that took two decades to build. Our Defence Force members sacrificed a lot to see a stable government in Afghanistan and some paid the ultimate price in the course of the effort. Some who survived and are now back home are living with PTSD, anxiety, depression and even later died due to their experiences while in Afghanistan. I want to assure those who fought for peace in Afghanistan that Australia is proud of you and thanks you for your service. And we acknowledge those who lost someone through this service. We are with you in prayer. Just know you are not alone and there is always someone to talk to.

If you are struggling to come to terms with the unfolding circumstance, please call Safe Zone on 1800142072. Please stay safe.

Similarly, several Catholic organisations have signed a Refugee Council of Australia petition that calls for the Government to take seven steps to support people in Afghanistan and Afghan nationals currently in Australia. The steps include providing additional resettlement places for Afghan refugees, increasing aid to the region and evacuating people who are at grave risk, including those who supported the Australian Government and Defence Force.

The Catholic Alliance for People Seeking Asylum (CAPSA) has written to Government ministers, calling for swift and compassionate action for Afghans. Let us continue to support any initiative that will help Afghan nationals at this time.
